The prices for our products and services are subject to change without prior notice. Current contracts are not affected by the price adjustment as long as the minimum contract term has not expired. In the case of service packages and services, the price change will only take effect from the next booking. We will keep price adjustments within limits and only make them if an economically justifiable adjustment is necessary due to increased operating, deployment and location costs. This also includes price reductions.

We have made every effort to display the colors and images of our products that appear in the store as accurately as possible. We cannot guarantee that your computer screen will display every color correctly.

We reserve the right, but are not obligated, to restrict the sale of our products or services to certain persons, geographic regions or jurisdictions. We may exercise this right on a case-by-case basis. We refuse to provide services, services, products or goods to persons, states or organizations that are on the sanctions lists of the Federal Republic of Germany, the European Union or the United Nations.

We reserve the right to limit the quantities of products or services we offer. All product descriptions or product prices are subject to change at any time without notice in accordance with our Price Adjustment Clause (Section 6). We reserve the right to discontinue any product at any time. Any offer for any product or service made on this website is void where prohibited.

We do not warrant that the quality of any products, services, information or other material purchased or obtained by you will meet your expectations or that any errors in the Service will be corrected.

Our current and any new products, services and/or features offered through the Website in the future are also subject to these Terms and Conditions.

SECTION 8 - 2-ND HAND STORE / PRIVATE SALE / B-WARE

We offer our former, current and future employees and production partners the opportunity to sell items/products from private households that are no longer used via our 2nd hand store. A basic inspection of these items is carried out. We do not guarantee that the quality and functionality of these items/products purchased or acquired by you will meet your expectations or that defects in service will be corrected.

Items/products will be offered and sold privately by our former, current and future employees and production partners (natural persons) via the 2nd hand store.

We offer B-goods and "like new" computer spare parts, notebooks, smartphones and tablets for sale. We check the quality and functionality of these goods to the best of our ability. We do not guarantee that the quality and functionality of these goods purchased or acquired by you will meet your expectations or that errors in the service will be corrected.

SECTION 9 - RENTAL SERVICES

We offer a rental service for various products. The rental period is between 5 days and one month. Customers have the right to request an extension of the rental period at any time. The decision whether or not to comply with this request and extend the rental period is at our discretion.

Contact:

We secure our rentable products against manipulation and theft in the best possible way. Technical devices such as smartphones, tablets or computers that are offered for rent are equipped with security software that enables us to locate the device at any time and lock it in the event of theft or misuse. It is strictly forbidden to circumvent these security measures.

As soon as we become aware that these security measures have been circumvented or an attempt to manipulate these security measures has taken place, this will result in immediate consequences under criminal law and the rental contract will be terminated by us with immediate effect. The renter is obliged to return the device immediately.

Penalties will be charged if a product is returned late. These include the booked product price (rental price) plus 20 euros per day of delay. In the event of damage or complete inoperability of the returned product or in the event of a loss that makes a return impossible, we will subsequently charge an additional penalty fee of 250 euros. The renter is obliged to report the loss of the device to us immediately.

If the loss was caused by theft or robbery, the renter is obliged to prove this by submitting a copy of the criminal report to the police and the report to his insurance company. If this is done, we reserve the right to waive or reduce the penalty fee, but are not obliged to do so. Otherwise, the penalty fee for loss will be due within 10 days.

Penalties must be paid within 10 days by bank transfer, PayPal or a payment link provided by SumUp.

We may at any time conclude contracts with cooperation partners who can offer their services for sale via our online store through these contracts.

We test these services to the best of our ability for quality and functionality. We do not guarantee that the quality and functionality of these services purchased or acquired by you will meet your expectations or that errors in the service will be corrected.

The other contractual terms and conditions for the services offered are determined by our cooperation partners. They are also obliged to inform the customer of their general terms and conditions.

Nemeth/Star Productions receives a commission for every purchase of a service from our cooperation partner via our online store. The commission is included in the customer price.

SECTION 11 - PRICES

The prices quoted include statutory VAT and other price components in accordance with the applicable statutory provisions. In accordance with Section 19 (1) of the German Value Added Tax Act, VAT is not shown separately on invoices. All prices are quoted, calculated and invoiced in euros.

We reserve the right to offer special conditions to customers in low-income countries in order to adapt our products and services to local income levels. For customers in low-income countries, we may issue invoices in the local currency on a voluntary basis, but we are not obliged to do so.

Foreign currency conversions are made on the basis of the exchange rates of the European Central Bank at the time of invoicing.
